

Insurance Coverage Defense

Our Insurance Coverage Defense attorneys team with our clients to help them achieve their business vision and goals. Our mission is to provide excellent, innovative, and cost effective legal services for our clients. In fulfilling that mission we bring our team's wide array of practical and legal construction project experiences to our services.

While Vandeventer Black provides a full array of services needed by our business clients, some of our core Insurance Coverage Defense services include:

- General legal advice and information to claims professionals
- Evaluation and drafting of policy language
- Coverage and risk analysis, including policy interpretation and opinions for property casualty insurers, business and employment coverage insurers and automobile insurers
- Case evaluation and management
- First-party litigation, including property, life and disability coverage
- Bad faith litigation
- Third-party litigation, including commercial general liability, excess and umbrella and professional liability
- Defense and prosecution of lawsuits, including declaratory judgment actions and reservations of rights
- Subrogation claims and litigation

Our attorneys provide comprehensive legal services involving insurance coverage and are frequently called upon to advise clients on complex issues and to negotiate and resolve claims.
